Discover Gqeberha, South Africa: The Jewel of Nelson Mandela Bay

Nestled along the stunning Eastern Cape coastline, Gqeberha, formerly known as Port Elizabeth, is a vibrant city rich in history, culture, and natural beauty. Part of the Nelson Mandela Bay Municipality, this dynamic urban hub seamlessly blends the charm of a coastal retreat with the opportunities of a thriving economic center. Known as "The Friendly City," Gqeberha warmly welcomes visitors with its diverse attractions, pristine beaches, and strategic importance as one of Africa's key ports.

As one of Africa's most significant ports, Nelson Mandela Bay is perfectly poised to host world-class marine and maritime tourism events. The Port of Ngqura, located in the bay, is a modern deep-water harbor that serves as a critical hub for trade and logistics. Its strategic position makes it a gateway to African and international markets, enhancing its appeal for large-scale conferences, exhibitions, and trade markets.

The city's infrastructure supports the seamless execution of events such as the African Coastal Marine and Maritime Tourism Trade Market, with state-of-the-art venues, excellent transportation links, and a robust hospitality industry. Gqeberha's role as a leader in the blue economy, combined with its commitment to sustainability, positions it as the ideal destination for forward-thinking initiatives in coastal and marine tourism.

🌸 Highlights

Welcome to Africa's Coastal Marine Tourism Trade Market 2025

◆ Background: Africa's Coastal Marine and Maritime Tourism Alliance (ACMMTA) is dedicated to promoting sustainable coastal and marine tourism across Africa. Our mission is to position Africa's coastal regions as premier destinations, fostering economic growth, cultural exchange, and environmental stewardship.

Objectives

- Facilitate collaboration among government, private sector, investors, and local communities to explore tourism investments across Africa.
- ◆ Highlight key growth opportunities in coastal marine and maritime tourism sub-sectors.
- Address emerging trends and innovations in the marine and coastal tourism landscape.
- Position Nelson Mandela Bay as a key player in the global maritime industry and a prime tourism destination.

Showcase the potential to grow the Metro's maritime economy through investments and innovation in:

- Ocean Economy
- Tourism
- Coastal Marine Tourism
- Maritime Tourism
- Trade and Investment
- Township and Village Economy

Drive Investments

- Attract investors and buyers to enable project development.
- Facilitate market access for local businesses.

Promote Tourism Products

- Showcase existing attractions, tourism routes, and destinations.
- Encourage a culture of entrepreneurship through trade exhibitions.

Empower Entrepreneurs

- Provide opportunities for entrepreneurs to exhibit products and services, enhancing trade prospects.
